

CALENDAR

weekend

Los Angeles Times
Thursday, September 23, 2004
calendarlive.com/weekend

drama "Nothing but the Truth" opens at the Mark Taper Forum. Kanl, who co-authored "Sizwe Banzi Is Dead" and "The Island" with Athol Fugard and Winston Nshona, plays a man who quietly protested apartheid at home while his activist brother chose exile in London. At a family reunion after the brother's death, suppressed anger and long-hidden secrets emerge. Kanl, Esmeralda Bihl and Warona Seane re-create the roles they played in the Lincoln Center production; Janice Honeyman directs.

"Nothing but the Truth," Mark Taper Forum, 135 N. Grand Ave., L.A. Opens 4 p.m. Sunday. Runs 8 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday, 7:30 p.m. Sunday, 2:30 p.m. Saturday-Sunday, except Nov. 7 (2:30 p.m. only). Ends Nov. 7. 334-852. (213) 628-2772.

FESTIVAL Take the Cannolis...

Brooklyn-born television comic Jimmy Kimmel (along with Adam Carolla and Tom Lasorda) is bringing the Feast of San Gennaro, a 76-year-old New York Italian neighborhood tradition, to L.A. for a third straight year. The fest celebrates Italian culture with entertainment, food, live music, carnival games, street performers, children's activities and cooking lessons. Dom DeLuise, Henry Winkler, Jim Be-lushi, Joe Mantegna, Quentin Tarantino and Tony Danza are among the celebrities expected to attend the festival. The festivities kick into gear at 6 tonight with a charity gala dinner called Prima Notte.

Feast of San Gennaro 2004, the Grove at the Farmers Market, 6333 W. 3rd St., L.A. 11 a.m.-11 p.m. Friday-Sunday. Festival admission is free. Tonight's Prima Notte tickets $100-$250. (818) 994-4661 or www.feastofsa.org.

MUSIC The voice of New Zealand

Soprano Kiri Te Kanawa put her native New Zealand on the international musical map as she conquered one leading opera house after another, with concert stages soon to follow. An estimated audience of more than 600 million people heard her sing at the televised wedding of Prince Charles and Lady Diana Spencer in 1981. Te Kanawa will sing a recital of music by Handel, Vivaldi, Debussy, Strauss and other composers as part of the "Voices in Song Series" sponsored by the Orange County Performing Arts Center. Celebrated pianist Warren Jones will be her accompanist.

Kiri Te Kanawa, Orange County Performing Arts Center, 600 Town Center Drive, Costa Mesa. 2 p.m. Sunday. 946-378. (714) 556-2746.

HERITAGE: "Family Gathering, North Hollywood" (2001) is in "Traces of Identity: An Insider's View Into the L.A. Armenian Community" exhibition at the Los Angeles Municipal Art Gallery.

ARA OSHAGAN Municipal Art Gallery

ART Armenians in America

The culmination of four years of work, "Traces of Identity: An Insider's View Into the L.A. Armenian Community" is a documentary exhibit of photographs by Ara Oshagan that explores questions about Armenian life in the United States. This Sunday, the exhibit of 40 black-and-white photographs opens with a look at such aspects as religion, family, society and politics that shape immigrant and Armenian identities.

"Traces of Identity: An Insider's View Into the L.A. Armenian Community," Los Angeles Municipal Art Gallery, Barnsdall Art Park, 4800 Hollywood Blvd., L.A. Opening reception, 2-5 p.m. Sunday. Hours: Noon-5 p.m.

Fridays through Sundays. Ends Dec. 31. $3-$5; 11 and younger, free. (323) 644-6269.

THEATER 'Peter Pan' farewell

After two successful Broadway runs and the logging of many frequent flier miles during national tours of her signature show, "Peter Pan," Cathy Rigby will soar off to Neverland one last time in a farewell run of the musical, commemorating the 100th anniversary of J.M. Barrie's classic.

"Peter Pan," La Mirada Theatre for the Performing Arts, 14900 La Mirada Blvd., La Mirada. Opens Friday. Runs: 7:30 p.m. Tuesdays through Thursdays, 8 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays, 7:30 p.m. Sundays, and 2:30 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays, except 8 p.m. only this Saturday and 7:30 p.m. only this Sunday; ends Oct. 10. $32 and $40. (562) 944-9801 or (714) 994-6310.